History in the Making

Alpha Delta Nu Chapter, Phi Alpha Theta National History Honor Society

History in the Making is an annual publication of the California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB) Alpha Delta Nu Chapter of the Phi Alpha Theta National History Honor Society, and is sponsored by the History Department at CSUSB. Issues are published at the end of the spring quarter of each academic year.

 Phi Alpha Theta's mission is to promote the study of history through the encouragement of research, good teaching, publication and the exchange of learning and ideas among historians. The organization seeks to bring students, teachers and writers of history together for intellectual and social exchanges, which promote and assist historical research and publication by our members in a variety of ways.

The journal is a student reviewed journal. Students interested in submitting an article, should follow these general guidelines. To obtain more specific submission guidelines or to request additional information about the journal, please contact Dr. Cherstin Lyon, CSUSB History Department, 5500 University Parkway, San Bernardino, California 92407. Call (909) 537-3836, Fax (909) 537-7645, Email: clyon@csusb.edu.

To submit a manuscript: provide a complete version of the paper with all references to the identity of the author removed. Submissions should also include a separate cover sheet and separate biographical sketch of the author, including degree anticipated, any previous degrees received, future plans, including graduate school, career goals and areas of concentrated study. Students should submit articles electronically c/o Dr. Cherstin Lyon at the email address listed above with the subject line: "attn Editor in Chief, Journal Article Submission." All submissions should be in Microsoft Word® or Rich Text Format. Editors will check for spelling errors and layout problems, not for substantial revision opportunities. Submissions will be reviewed by a board of student editors and accepted or rejected based on academic standards of scholarly contribution and documentation, adherence to submission guidelines, and the needs of the journal. Papers need to be thematically concentrated in the discipline of history and based on original research. Articles must not have been previously published or be under consideration for publication elsewhere at the time of submission. All papers should conform to Chicago Manual Turabian style of citation.
